Contents

Acknowledgements ................................................................................................................................................................................... 2
Contents ........................................................................................................................................................................................................... 3
List of figures, tables and cases.......................................................................................................................................................................... 4
Abbreviations .................................................................................................................................................................................................. 6
Foreword Marta Santos Pais, Special Representative of the United Nations Secretary-General on Violence against Children 7
Reflections on the prevention of violence against children .................................................................................................................... 10
Ms Bathabile Dlamini, MP, Minister of Social Development .................................................................................................................. 10
Mr Mike Masutha, MP, Minister of Justice and Correctional Services .................................................................................................. 11

PART ONE: CHILDREN AND LAW REFORM

Legislative and policy developments 2013/2014 Lucy Jamieson, Nikki Stein and Samantha Waterhouse 14

PART TWO: PREVENTING VIOLENCE AGAINST CHILDREN

Overview .................................................................................................................................................................................................. 24
Violence against children in South Africa: Developing a prevention agenda Shanaaz Mathews and Patrizia Benvenuti 26
The prevention of violence against children: Creating a common understanding Joan van Niekerk and Mokhantšo Makoae 35
Towards effective child protection: Adopting a systems approach Cathy Chames and Dena Lomofsky 43
Towards effective child protection: Ensuring adequate financial and human resources Lucy Jamieson, Lorenzo Wakefield and Megan Briedé 51
Young children: Preventing physical abuse and corporal punishment Carol Bower and Andrew Dawes 58
Primary school children: Widening worlds and increasing risk of sexual abuse Lucie Cluver, Franziska Meinck and Shaheeda Omar 65
Adolescents: Preventing interpersonal and gender-based violence Pinky Mahlangu, Aník Gevers and Ariane De Lannoy 73
Adopting a violence prevention approach: Shifting from policies and plans to implementation Mastoera Sadan and Shanaaz Mathews 80

PART THREE: CHILDREN COUNT – THE NUMBERS

Introducing Children Count – Abantwana Babalulekile .......................................................................................................................... 88
Demography of South Africa’s children Katharine Hall, Helen Meintjes and Winnie Sambu 90
Income poverty, unemployment and social grants Katharine Hall and Winnie Sambu 94
Child health and nutrition Nadine Nannan, Katharine Hall and Winnie Sambu 99
Children’s access to education Katharine Hall 104
Children’s access to housing Katharine Hall 110
Children’s access to services Katharine Hall 113
Technical notes on the data sources .................................................................................................................................................. 115
About the contributors .................................................................................................................................................................. 117